Netaji Vidyapith Alumni Association (NVPAA), the prime platform of all the former students of Netaji Vidyapith Railway Higher Secondary School of Maligaon here has launched its website on Netaji's birthday.

Participating at the Netaji Jayanti celebration with the present students, the NVPAA members tried to boost the morale of the students highlighting the contributions of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose in India's nation building.

Durgeswar Talukdar, Principal, Netaji Vidyapith Railway Higher Secondary School launched the website of the ex-students which is built with a motive to reconnect the ex-students of the institution and support the school for better education.

It is to be mentioned here that 23rd January is also the foundation day of the school which was started in 1948.

Sadhan Kumar Ghose, one of the advisers of the association is the man behind this herculean task of enlisting the contact details of the ex-students since 1951, said, "To address the global need of connecting the oldies for cause of overall development of the present day students, the website will be a handy reference for not only the alumni spread around the world but also will work as a digital platform for the students. "

The NVPAA has promised to stand with the school to bring back its pride with long term association. The launch of the official website of the association (www.nvpalumni.com) on the foundation day of the institution on Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose's birthday, is the first step towards achieving the goal.
